This is an agreement to provide services; it is not an agreement for the purchase of a vehicle.
 California law gives you the following rights and protections:
 Once you have signed this agreement, you have the right to cancel it and receive a full refund of any money paid, including any brokerage fee you may have paid, under any of the following circumstances:
 1. The final price of the vehicle exceeds the purchase price listed above.
 2. The vehicle is not as described above upon delivery.
 3. This agreement expires prior to your being presented with a selling dealer's purchase agreement.
 If you have paid a purchase deposit, you have the right to receive a refund of that deposit at any time prior to your signing a vehicle purchase agreement with a selling dealer. Purchase deposits are limited by law to no more than 2.5 percent of the purchase price of a vehicle and must be deposited by an autobroker or auto buying service in a federally insured trust account. If you are unable to resolve a dispute with your autobroker or auto buying service, please contact an investigator of the Department of Motor Vehicles.
